

Position Title: Chemist II, Analytical Services

Position Summary: This position will mainly focus on supporting drug development and analytical research and developing activities, as well as cGMP testing

Responsibilities:

- Performs routine sample analysis and a variety of tasks to support product development, ensuring agreed timelines
- Performs method validation following protocol
- Reports and resolves any unexpected issues under supervision
- Performs method development under supervision
- Complies with all relevant cGMP and/or GLP regulatory requirements while carrying out assigned studies

Requirements:

- B.S. or M.S. in Chemistry or related discipline with 2-6 years relevant experience in pharmaceutical or related industry
- A self-motivator and good team player
- Good communication skills